Beliefs

At Miami Palmetto Senior High School, we believe the following:

- Our students can learn, achieve, and succeed.
- Our stakeholders share the responsibility of preserving the history and the academic traditions of the school.
- When high educational standards are an everyday part of the school environment, students learn to put forth more effort and achievement improves.
- We challenge our students to improve their attitude and take responsibility for their own learning.
- The school and community will develop practices that promote good health for both the people and the planet.
- Students will practice and exhibit behavior that contributes to self-respect, fairness, and integrity.
- Our faculty is committed to professional growth, educational innovation, and technological advancements.
- Everyone is entitled to and responsible for maintaining a safe, healthy, and clean environment that benefits learning.
- All stakeholders share the responsibility of ensuring a fair and consistent educational environment.
