

Why your voice matters when choosing our next Superintendent

- ❖ Over the last 14 years, MDCPS has risen to the highest possible level in. Today we are seen as the highest performing urban school system in America, with zero 'F' or 'D' rated schools.
- ❖ High school graduation rates in Miami-Dade County public schools even increased during the 2020-21 school year. In the last school year, Miami-Dade achieved a graduate rate of 90.1%, an increase of 0.5.% from the previous year, records show.
- ❖ In the spring of 2007, the graduation rate was 58.7%. Alberto Carvalho, who took over as superintendent in 2008, promised that in 10 years, they would see that rise to 90%.
- ❖ There is a Special School Board Meeting Jan 18 at 10am to determine the appropriate process to screen/hire the next Superintendent.
